Semifinals, Game 10
State Farm Center, Champaign

Winning Coach – Jason Opoka, Glen Ellyn (Glenbard West)

The run with these guys, these seniors has been so special. We finally got to he point where we can finish what we set out to do. In sixth and seventh grade, we talked about it. In eighth grade, we met about it. And right now, tomorrow, we have an opportunity to attain it.

Early on, their zone definitely disrupted and we didn't move the ball, we were a little tentative against their zone, we missed some shots early without some inside touches, so that kind of flustered us at moments. We took some ill-advised shots, the ball going horizontal and not vertical.

Losing Coach – Rob Brost, Bolingbrook

I thought the game turned the last minute of the second quarter. It was a six-point game there and they went on an 8-0 spurt, maybe it was 10-0, I thought the game turned there. Overall, I thought we did a good job with our game plan, we actually executed it pretty well. When (Bobby) Durkin's hitting shots ;like that, they're almost im[possoible to beat and we talked before the game we were going to give up something and that ended up being what it was. A lot of those were contested shots.

I'm just really proud of our guys. Kudos to the staff of Glenbard West and their entire team. I thought they played very well, but they had to play well to beat us.
